		Expected outcome	1. Comprehensive and analytical understanding of human society, the network systems, identifying large scale behavioural patterns, and group dynamics is an essential requirement in almost all fields of professions. The degree holders will be eligible to choose career opportunity in areas such as teaching and academics, media, organizational planning, journalism, social work, human resource management, law firms, advertising and marketing, archiving, industrial relations, information and research, tourism, health, penal institutions, events management, youth work, retail management and sales, freelance writing, interpretation/translation etc. 2. This learner friendly programme will be particularly helpful for people less exposed to opportunities, specially women and weaker sections of the society, who fail to continue higher studies and avail multiple choices available in the job market. This course will open up prestigious opportunities from home like analyzing market and global trends, editing, writing online blogs, article in newspapers and magazines, etc. which all draw upon effective research and statistical skills, understanding of different cultures, and studies of organizational behaviour effectively, without affecting the familial responsibility. Thus, this course will provide wide range of self-employment opportunity to the stakeholders.
